

Position Available

Clay County, North Carolina is accepting applications for a Building Inspector/Code Enforcement Officer. Final qualifications for this job are determined by the NC Department of Insurance and applicants should prequalify as soon as applying. Interested candidates should complete the North Carolina Application for employment (PD 107) and submit it to the county manager's office at 33 Main Street, Hayesville NC 28904 or by mail to P.O. Box 118 Hayesville 28904. The level of expertise desired is level III but all levels may be considered. This is a full time job and subject to the North Carolina Department of Insurance standards and licensing requirements and processes.

For applications for employment go to www.clayconc.com, Clay County Government, County Offices, Clay County Human Resources. A full position description can be found at this address as well.