

VACANCY

Clay County Water and Sewer Director- this position is responsible for the administration of the District's water and sewer system involving operations, maintenance, construction and supervision of employees. The functional areas of the Director's responsibility includes the wastewater treatment plant, sewer collection system, water supply, water treatment plant, water storage tanks, business office and other duties as assigned. The Director is required to have a valid driver's license, a high school diploma and 5 years' experience in water and sewer utility management or equivalent environmental experience. The Director must be licensed and in good standing with the State of North Carolina as a C well operator, Wastewater II operator, B distribution operator and a Collections II operator. Interested applicants should submit a State PD 107 application to the attention of the County Manager, Mark Pullium at PO Box 118 Hayesville, NC 28904 or drop off the application at the County Finance Office. This position is Exempt and salary is based upon qualifications. Position is open until filled. Clay County is an EOE.